MIKE A HURWITZ

Monster Media

Web Developer, Dec 2014 - present

- Expand code base and add new functionality to existing web applications, using various technologies including CakePHP, WordPress, and AngularJS.
- Work on web applications and mobile sites of varying function, from a custom internal CMS to a client facing interactive mobile game.
- Quickly understand complex pre-existing systems to investiage and resolve backlogged bugs.
- Assist with production tasks such as testing, debugging and QA.
- Monitor latest trends in web development, web design, and user experience.

BIGEYE Agency

Web Developer, Mar 2012 - Dec 2014

- BIGEYE's sole web developer responsible for all web projects, including Turnkey Media Solutions, Kohl's Play it Forward, and The First Academy.
- Develop new creative websites while maintaining and improving existing client websites.
- Collaborate with art department on major projects from brain storming to completion as a lead developer advocating for consistency, the user experience, and pushing the envelope.
- Oversee contract developers to ensure quality projects are delivered to the client on time.
- Produce web development workflow process, from defining deployment process to creating a starter front end template.

Education

University of Central Florida

Bachelor of Arts in Digital Media (Web Design Track), Information Technology Minor, 2011

Skills

Skills

- HTML5
- CSS3 with SASS & Compass
- JavaScript, jQuery, AngularJS
- PHP
- MySQL
- WordPress Theme Development

- Responsive Design
- Website optimization
- Cross Browser Compatibility
- API Integration
- LAMP Stack
- SEO
- Modular Programming

Tools

- Git
- Grunt
- Sublime Text
- Command Line
- Photoshop